

THE CIRCUIT TRAILS

ONE OF AMERICA'S LARGEST TRAIL NETWORKS IS RIGHT IN YOUR BACKYARD! GET OUT AND ENJOY IT!

WHAT ARE THE CIRCUIT TRAILS?

The Circuit is a network of bicycle and pedestrian trails connecting people to jobs, communities and parks in the Greater Philadelphia Region. New trails are added each year.

FUN FACTS ABOUT THE CIRCUIT TRAILS:

- More than 320 miles of trail are open for use today! When completed, the Circuit will have more than 800 miles of trail, with 50% of the region's population living within one mile of the trail network.
- Some of the Philadelphia region's most iconic trails are part of the Circuit Trails network. These include the Schuylkill River Trail, Schuylkill Banks Boardwalk, Pennypack Trail, Manayunk Bridge, Newton Creek Trail, Camden Greenway Trail and Cooper River Park.
- The Circuit Coalition is a collaboration of 65+ organizations working to develop the Circuit Trails. The NJ Tree Foundation is one of these organizations.

Trees along the Circuit

Trees along the City of Camden. Sugar Maples line Stockton Park.

Cherry Trees and White Pines add beauty to a reclaimed lot on 2nd St. & Erie Street.

Blackgum trees provide shade in Reverend Evers Park.

THE NJ TREE FOUNDATION is a statewide non-profit organization dedicated to planting trees in New Jersey's urban communities. Since 2002, the NJ Tree Foundation has worked in the Camden area, improving the environment and transforming neighborhoods with more than 6,500 trees.

NEW TREES ALONG THE CIRCUIT TRAILS

With support from the William Penn Foundation, the NJ Tree Foundation is reforesting trails, parks and on-street bike paths along the Circuit in the City of Camden with their "Trees for Trails" project. To volunteer, donate or learn more, please visit www.njtreefoundation.org. Tree planting events are held each Spring and Fall.
